

Expro held a Christmas function at the Turffontein race course on Friday last week, and donated R50 000 towards the surgery of Joshua Noome, a five-year-old Benoni boy who was born weighing only 430g. Seen at the Turffontein race course during the donation are (from left), Joshua's parents Glenn and Bronwyn Noome, with Expro committee member and Farrarmere resident Robby Burns.